(c) the measures taken by Government to check these infiltrations; and

(d) the extent to which these measures have become effective?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI MULLAPPALLY RAMACHANDRAN): (a) to (d) Available information about apprehension of foreign infiltrators indicates a decline in cross border infiltration on Indo-Bangladesh and Indo-Paklstan borders. There are no significant incidences of foreign infiltration on the other borders. The details of apprehension of foreign infiltrators made by Border Security Force on Indo-Bangladesh and Indo-Paklstan international borders during the last three years and the current year are as under:

Year	Indo-Bangladesh border	Indo-Pakistan border	Total
2006	5130	128	5258
2007	4206	128	4334
2008	2559	131	2690
2009 (Till June)	991	29	1020

The Government have adopted a multi-pronged approach to contain cross-border infiltration which, inter-alia, Includes round the clock surveillance and patrolling on the borders and establishment of observation posts; construction of border fencing and flood lighting; introduction of modern and hi-tech surveillance equipment; upgradation of intelligence set up and coordination with the State Governments and concerned intelligence agencies.

As a result of these measures, cross border infiltration has shown a declining trend.

Plan to check naxalite activities

2003. SHRI PYARELAL KHANDELWAL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government has worked on any plan to keep an eye on naxalite activities in the naxal affected backward States in the wake of incessant attacks on central police forces;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether security agencies of Government doubt that some agencies are serving naxalites in the garb of serving the people; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI AJAY MAKEN): (a) and (b) Government has adopted an integrated approach in dealing with Left Wing Extremism activities in the arenas of security, development and public perception. State Governments deal with the various issues related to naxalite activities in the States. The Central Government supplements their efforts in several ways. These include deployment of Central paramilitary forces (CPMFs) and Commando Battalions for resolute Action (CoBRA); sanction of India Reserve (IR) battalions, setting up of Counter Insurgency and Anti Terrorism (CIAT) schools; modernization and upgradation of the State Police and their intelligence apparatus under the Scheme for Modernization of State Police Forces (MPF scheme); re-imbursement of security-related expenditure under the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme; filling up critical infrastructure gaps under the scheme for Special Infrastructure in Leftwing Extremism affected States; assistance in training of State Police through Ministry of Defence, Central Police Organisations and Bureau of Police Research and Development; sharing of intelligence; facilitating inter-State coordination; launching special intra-State and Inter-State Coordinated joint operations, assistance in community policing and civic actions and assistance in development works through a range of schemes of different Central Ministries.

(c) and (d) Available inputs indicate that certain NGOs do rake up issues to suit the agenda of the CPI (Maoist).
